

27 Christians may do some good, but it's just a means to convert people.

- Sometimes Christians seem only interested in people for what they can get out of them and that's a shame
- Christianity's about the conversion which happens when people open up to God and get 'overwhelmed by Christ's love' (2 Corinthians 5:14) which really does good, for them and for the world around them
- God loves people whether they're converted or not but Christians fall short in this
- Jesus gave his followers an example by letting the rich young ruler he met walk away from him (Mark 10:22)
